Cause

Charge Number	Violation
One	There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated the special condition that she shall obtain a high school diploma or G.E.D within the first year of supervision. Ms. Camba has been enrolled in Edwards Shands Adult School in Oakland, California since July of 2006 and has not completed the requirements for a high school diploma. According to recent transcripts, the offender is five credits short of the 190 credits needed to graduate. Evidence in support of this charge is contained in the United States Probation case file.
Two	There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated the special condition that she pay the special assessment in the amount of $200.00 On September 24, 2007, Ms. Camba signed a payment agreement to pay her special assessment in full by October 17, 2007. To date, she has only paid $100.00 leaving an arrearage of $50.00. Evidence in support of this charge is the payment history received from the Financial Litigation Unit.
Three	There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated standard condition number 11 that she notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being questioned by a law enforcement officer. On April 3, 2007, Ms. Camba received a traffic citation for Unsafe Speed for Prevailing Conditions in Arizona. She failed to notify the probation officer of having law enforcement contact within 72 hours. Evidence in support of this charge is the California Law Enforcement Telecommunication System Report.

Four

There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated standard condition number three that she shall follow the instructions of the probation officer.

On January 31, 2008, the undersigned directed Ms. Camba to update her narcotic registration with Oakland Police Department since she moved to a new address in Oakland. On February 26, 2008, this officer reminded her she needed to update her registration and directed her to have her narcotic registration completed by March 4, 2008. On March 6 , 2008, the undersigned contacted Oakland Police Department and the records clerk indicated that Mrs. Camba had not updated her narcotic registration with their agency.

Action Taken and Reason

Ms. Camba is currently attending Edward Shands Adult School and is enrolled in a Life Science class. According to a progress report, the offender is performing satisfactorily in the class and needs two and half additional science credits before she meets the requirements for a high school diploma. Furthermore, she has a full time job as a Manager Trainee at Burger King and lacks a flexible work schedule to attend school on a consistent and regular bases. Additionally, she has agreed to make monthly payments towards her special assessment. In light of the aforementioned it is requested that no action be taken at this time to give the offender the opportunity to finish school and make special assessment payments.

The Assistant U.S. Attorney has been notified and there are no objections.

Address of offender: 1214 80th Street
